

Dubuque Community School District Hempstead High School

English Department

Course Name: Contemporary Literature
Instructor: Mrs. Christianson
Room: B117
Email: CChristianson@dbqschools.org

Course Description: (Course # ENG329)

Semester / Juniors and Seniors/ 1 Credit

This one-semester course is designed for students interested in exploring mostly American literature based on challenging contemporary issues, themes and artists. Fiction, non-fiction, plays, film and poetry (including contemporary music lyrics) will be studied in-depth. Students will analyze, discuss and find understanding of the challenging issues of our time. Thematic units may include: responsibility, choices and consequences, prejudice, crime, teen-adult relationships, etc.

Alignment to the Iowa Core Curriculum: Instruction, learning and assessment are built primarily on the 11-12th grade-band expectations of the Iowa Core Reading and Speaking and Listening Strands.

Iowa Core Standards:

Standard 1: Reading Strand - Literature

Students will effectively comprehend, analyze, evaluate, and create using a diverse range of appropriately complex print materials.

Standard 2: Reading Strand – Informational Text

Students will effectively comprehend, analyze, evaluate, and create using a diverse range of appropriately complex print materials.

Standard 3: Writing

Students will routinely write to learn and to communicate for a range of tasks, purposes, and audiences.

Standard 4: Speaking and Listening

Students will participate effectively in a range of rich, structured conversations, collaborations, and presentations.

Standard 5: Language

Students will apply knowledge of the English language and its conventions when reading, writing, speaking and listening.

Evaluation/Assessment:

The student's grade will be comprised of homework, class participation, projects, graded discussions, quizzes, writing assignments, presentations, and tests. Active class participation is what will make daily class sessions interesting and thought provoking. This requires that students regularly attend class, but it also requires that students orally communicate in a respectful way in class by asking questions and sharing ideas.

Content:

Reading- Short stories, poetry, nonfiction, musical lyrics, novels

Writing- Character analysis, personal narrative, journaling, poetry, research writing, essays

Speaking and Listening- Small-group discussion, large-class discussion, fish bowls, presentations

Language- Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics lessons and practice

Instructional Strategies:

I will use a variety of instructional strategies to help students develop an understanding of the content as well as the ability to apply it in real-world situations. Examples of those strategies include:

Direct Instruction- Lecture, Invited guest speakers, Films

Indirect Instruction-Decision making, Guided inquiry, Problem solving

Group Interaction-Open discussions, Fish bowls, Debates

Individual Study- Papers/Essays, Reading logs, Research

Resources May Include:

The Perks of Being a Wallflower by Stephen Chobosky

The Glass Castle by Jeannette Walls

The Road by Cormac McCarthy

The Virgin Suicides by Jeffery Eugenides

The Lovely Bones by Alice Sebold

Like Water for Chocolate by Laura Esquirel

Serial podcast hosted by Sarah Koenig

Various short stories, poetry, films

Two Outside Reading books (students' choice)

Academic/Behavioral Expectations:

We will follow the Academic Accountability Policy: 5107. Students are expected to submit assignments on their given due dates. Assignments submitted after their due dates will still be accepted, however a determined amount of points will be deducted for having missed the deadline. Students will be allowed to submit late work throughout the course of each unit. However, late work for each specific unit will no longer be accepted after that unit has closed. If you must be absent, students are responsible for asking about notes, handouts, and all assignments from missed classes. If you have made prior arrangements for an extended deadline, then you are obligated to meet the extended deadline. A zero will be added to the gradebook for each missing assignment until the work has been submitted to the instructor.

Any successful learning experience requires mutual respect on the part of the student and the instructor. Neither instructor nor student should be subject to others' behavior that is rude, disruptive, or demeaning. The instructor has primary responsibility for and control over classroom behavior and maintenance of academic integrity.

Student I.D. Badge:

Per District expectation, high school students are expected to wear their student I.D. while at school at all times. In this classroom, you will be expected to wear your student I.D. Infractions of this expectation will result in one of the following consequences: teacher/student conference, parent contact, and/or office intervention.

Plagiarism Guidelines:

Hempstead students are expected to do their own schoolwork. Cheating by looking at another student's schoolwork, copying others' work, copying from other sources or similar cheating is not tolerated. With the advent of the Internet, the availability of information has exploded into a whole new and exciting realm for our students. The accessibility of documents has also brought with it an increasing concern regarding plagiarism, which is a form of cheating.

All Hempstead teachers are committed to educating our students about plagiarism, helping them understand what plagiarism is—especially through specific instruction in individual courses. We aim to teach students how to accurately quote and document sources as well as how to effectively convert researched information into their own words.

Plagiarism is defined by www.dictionary.com as: “a piece of writing that has been copied from someone else and is presented as being your own work; taking someone's words or ideas as if they were your own.” Iowa Core Literacy Anchor College and Career Readiness states that students will: “Gather relevant information from multiple print and digital sources, assess the credibility and accuracy of each source, and integrate the information while avoiding plagiarism.”

Cheating, including plagiarism, may result in loss of or reduced credit on an assignment, referral to the Assistant Principal office for documentation on the student’s record, and possible loss of class credit and failing grade.

Plagiarism and cheating exist in many forms and to various extents. Some typical examples are noted here:

1. Copying another student’s assignment/artwork/project; note: BOTH parties are engaging in cheating
2. Using another person’s paper/artwork/project/ in its entirety and calling it your own
3. Copying a paper word-for-word (artwork/project) from an internet document or documents
4. Using sentences from another source but replacing a few words
5. Passing off ideas or critiques as your own when they are someone else’s
6. Not putting quotation marks around exact words pulled from another resource
7. Not documenting the source at all, or documenting the wrong source
8. Not citing the sources used (even when paraphrasing and summarizing)

Incidental plagiarism will be addressed by the classroom teacher, and may include loss of credit for the assignment and parent contact. Consequences for blatant plagiarism and repeated acts of incidental plagiarism are listed below. Disciplinary action by Hempstead administration may include loss of class credit and failing grade.

Freshmen: 1st occurrence: 0% on plagiarized piece, possibility of revision for a better grade, parent contact, referral to Assistant Principal for documentation; repeated plagiarized pieces 0% without revision, parent contact and referral to AP Office for possible disciplinary action

Sophomores: 1st occurrence: 0% on plagiarized piece, possibility of revision but with grade reduction, parent contact, referral to Assistant Principal for documentation; repeated plagiarized pieces 0% without revision and referral to AP Office for possible disciplinary action

Juniors & Seniors: 1st occurrence: 0% on piece without revision, parent contact, referral to Assistant Principal for documentation purposes; repeated plagiarized pieces 0% without revision and referral to AP Office for possible disciplinary action

AP Classes: 1st occurrence 0% on piece without revision, parent contact, referral to Assistant Principal for possible disciplinary action

*Freshman & Sophomore students enrolled in Junior/Senior level courses will abide by the regulations and consequences set forth for that course.

Student Responsibility for Positive Digital Citizenship:

I am responsible for practicing positive digital citizenship.
