Text: Glencoe Understanding Personal and Consumer Law, McGraw Hill, 2000

Goals:

Students will analyze the relationship between ethics and the law and develop an appreciation for law. Students will understand that they must be able to communicate opinions and arguments verbally and in writing.

Students will understand the difficult balance between rights of the individual and the rights of society. Students will understand the relationships among contract law, and consumer law.

Dubuque Community School District Standards and Benchmarks

Understanding the principles of communication
 Understand the Nature of the Laws Affecting Business
 Understand and apply management principles

Attendance:

It is very important to attend class every day, as it is very difficult to find time to make up missed work. It is your responsibility to keep track of daily assignments and to complete any missed assignments. Late assignments will be accepted but there will be a 5 point deduction for late assignments.

Tardies:

Students should be in their seats when the bell rings or they are tardy. If the student needs to go to their locker or the restroom, they should come to class first and then get a pass. After the third tardy, there will be a 5 point deduction from the student's grade. An additional 5 points will be deducted for each succeeding tardy after the third, plus a call home. The school tardy policy found in your assignment notebook will be followed.

Grades:

1st Quarter – 10% citizenship/tardies/attendance; 50% daily work and 30% quizzes and tests.
