

COURSE INFORMATION

FINANCIAL LITERACY

Semester: one semester course

Grade: 10-12

Instructor: Mr. J. Evans voice mail – 552-5159
e-mail – jevans@dbqschools.org

Text: Business and Personal Finance, Glencoe - cost - $59.00

Course Description: This course focuses on the student's role as a citizen, student family member, consumer, and an active member in the world of work. The intent of the class is to inform students of: financial planning, banking services, investments, taxes, managing credit, housing, buying a car, planning for post-secondary education and insurance. Methods of instruction will include: lecture/discussion, video presentations, handouts, cooperative learning, practice sets, and written work.

Students Expectations:

1. Students are expected to follow all school rules.
2. Students are expected to be in their seats at the bell. Tardiness will not be tolerated.
3. Students are expected to attend class regularly.
4. Come to class with a positive attitude with the proper school supplies (which include paper/notebook, textbook, writing instrument, and homework assignments).
5. Homework assignments need to be completed on time. All late daily homework will Be graded as "F".
6. Students are expected to take notes when asked to by their instructor.
7. The students will behave in an adult manner at all times, respecting the rights of all students and their instructor.
8. Students are expected to put all electronic devices away upon entering the class.

Grading

A	100-95	B+	90-88	C+	80-78	D+	70-68
A-	94-91	B	87-84	C	77-74	D	67-64
		B-	83-81	C-	73-71	D-	63-61

Your grade will be determined by: daily work, quiz/exams, projects, practices sets, and class involvement. Although attendance is not used to determine the grade, poor attendance usually will lower a student' grade.

It is your job to keep track of your grade. You may do this by using your assignment notebook.