SAGEVILLE

Sageville Elementary Newsletter

January 31, 2019

From the desk of Miss Mac:

While I had plenty of time and a co-hort to come up with a clever “no school due to winter song”, I thought I would spare you! I couldn’t talk Mrs. Bahl into it! I’m looking forward to having the students and staff back.

Kudos to our custodians, Mr. Bahl and Mr. Paige, who have worked until 2:00 AM and have come in at 4:00 AM to make sure our building stayed safe under the freezing temperatures. I am grateful for their diligent care of our school!

Scrip orders from last week will be sent home on Friday. It will be a one hour late start as usual.

Due to the cancellation of the Grades 1 and 3 music program last week, the students will do a school performance at 1:50 PM on Tuesday, February 5th. Parents, friends and family, feel free to come. If you can not make it, Mr. Dyer will tape it and you can watch it in the comfort of your home. You can also send the link out to family to enjoy.

Now for some good stuff: The PTC Dance the Winter Blues Away is Friday, February 8th, 6:00-8:00 PM. This is a dance marathon. All are invited even if you choose to not get pledges. Prizes will be given out every 15 minutes starting at 6:30 PM from places like AMC, Grand Harbor, DQ, Cherry Lanes, Vertical Jump and Dominoes. There will be a snazzy photo booth so bring your phone for pictures. And, last but not least, there will be the balloon drop created by Mrs. Bihl. Again, a fun night for all Sageville families to mix and mingle.

The MAP testing window has been extended to February 19th. I’ll be meeting with the staff about our plan and will email that out to Grades 2-5 parents.
